

Homophone Fun!

Name _____

From No Reading Allowed by Raj Halder & Chris Carpenter

Directions: Circle the correct word to match the picture and the sentence. Then color the illustration.

I have hair / hare on my head.

A hair / hare is like a rabbit.

I heard / herd what you said.

The heard / herd of cows is big.

I wear jeans / genes every day.

My parents gave me their jeans / genes.

Learn Homophones from
No Reading Allowed by Raj Halder

I pray / prey or peace.

Mice are pray / prey to large birds.

I wear boots in the rain / reign.

The queen's rain / reign
has been 60 years.

If you're British, you might say mummy / mummy for mom.

The museum has an Egyptian mummy / mummy exhibit.